JEFFREY FREDMAN
PRIMARY EXAMINER

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on March 16, 2007 has been entered.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The claimed invention is drawn to methods of cloning using excisionase sites where the excision completely removes the undesired sites including the sites for the excisionase itself, and then places the fragments being cloned directly adjacent to each other. While there is abundant prior art on the use of recombinase enzymes and sites for cloning, and Borokov simply represents the closest of many references which teach this cloning, but Borokov does not teach or suggest the complete removal of the excisionase sites. Further, the method of Borokov typically results in a "dead" site which would prevent the fragments from being cloned "directly adjacent" to one another. The other central reference cited, Cheo et al, teaches sites which would function as required by the claims, but the declaration filed March 16, 2007 antedates the Cheo reference, removing Cheo as prior art. Therefore, the claims are novel and, in the absence of any prior art suggestion to "completely remove" the recombination sites, unobvious over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
